It has taken me 30 yrs. to start to feel like a grown-up, but I still don't know what I want to do with the rest of my life. Four years ago, left the rat race of Ford Motor for the snail's pace of CMU. It was a good move. I don't have a lot of material things, but I do have a beautiful daughter, good friends, and a job I enjoy most of the time, decent health and for all those I'm truly grateful.

Marital Status: Married Spouse's Name: Eric

Children Kyle 11, Katy 8

Occupation Accounting/Computer Consultant

Achievements/Hobbies

Lived in New York for 6 years. Although I miss Michigan I love New York. Go Yankees. We live close enough to the city to take the train and north to the Catskills to ski. My parents moved up from Fla and live 4 houses down and my sister, Nancy just moved here at the end of July. I have been blessed with 2 wonderful children and a great husband. I have been able to work part time and also teach religious education at church (believe it or not JP). I can't wait to see everyone.

Words of Wisdom

"Happiness aint just for overachievers". I wanted to say something quite profound, but I heard this in a country western song and it worked. "Fat, drunk and stupid is no way to go thru life" would have been my other choice.
