

Questionnaire shows reputations

In the past three years at Dearborn High, the Class of '71 has developed some meaningful relationships with one another and also some individuals have acquired reputations of some kind.

All in fun, a poll was taken with students being awarded prizes for winning in specific categories. The results were as follows:

Most likely to succeed	Mike Kirk	Barb Clark
Individualist	Steve Bingham	Barb Ramsey
Athlete	Gary Sartor	Becky Dickieson
Intellectual	Carl Gagliardi	Linda Guth
Artist	John Ebert	Jill Harvey
Friendliest	Joe Wimmer	Dorothy Baume
Best looking	Clint Hogue	Karen Cole
Nicest hair	Craig Hamilton	Stacy Bezirium
Cutest couple	Mitch Lingenfelter	Sandy Flowerday
Life of the party	Roger Heitman	Alona Thaxton
Most outgoing	Peter Tippett	Amy Thorpe
Biggest mouth	Jim Straub	Stephanie Longuski
Hardest worker	Jim Shell	Lois Dilloway
		Ann Spielman
Biggest flirt	Rich Walker	Lynne Evans
Best dressed	Gordon Roberts	Loni Mrkva
Goof-off	Bruce Yinger	Margaret Ridgley
Funniest	Marty Cawthon	Sue Halwachs

Farewell From the 9th Graders

It's all over for us now. Adams is in our past—perhaps even our pleasant past! Never again will we take a Eul evaluation—never again will Mrs. Van O. tell us to remove our gum. For now, at last, we're officially in high school.

We aren't exactly sad, but then we aren't exactly happy either. Adams has been a lot of fun, and some knowledge has even seeped in, but we know high school will be more rewarding still. I mean Dearborn High will be fun, but it just doesn't have a Mr. Stanton.

Well, wish us luck. May the future students of Adams like it as much as we have—Good-bye.
